United Supermarkets & Mrs Baird's Bread honor three Amarillo area teachers as Teachers on the Rise for September

AMARILLO, Texas — The United Family and Mrs Baird's Bread® announced the September winners of the fifteenth annual Teachers On The Rise program. Since the program's launch in August, nominations have poured in from students and families across the High Plains, highlighting how teachers go above and beyond the call of duty and deserve special recognition.

Congratulations to our winners from September: Jamie Saenz of Gus Birdwell Elementary School (Spearman ISD), Julie Solomon of Canyon Junior High & Canyon Intermediate School (Canyon ISD), and Jill Shelton of Canyon High School (Canyon ISD).

"Our teachers go above and beyond every single day, and it feels great to shine a spotlight on their hard work," said Abie Rampy, director of public relations for The United Family. "This program is one of our favorite ways to celebrate the heart of our communities, and we can't wait to see all the amazing educators who will be honored throughout the school year."

"We are on pace for a record number of nominations to start this school year," said Shane Sumrow, the program's director. "Every day, we receive nominations from students, parents and family members telling us about how teachers on the High Plains go above and beyond to impact our children. It is such an honor to read countless accounts of the great things going on in our classrooms!"

Winning teachers receive a $100 United Supermarkets gift card, a $100 Amazon gift card from Horse Creek Boutique in Spearman for classroom supplies, a $25 gift card to Tyler's Barbecue in Amarillo, and a gift basket full of Mrs Baird's goodies. The students who nominate a winning teacher also receive a $50 American Express gift card. Teachers On The Rise is also sponsored by Atmos Energy, who hosts the program's year-end banquet.
