United Family stores closed for Easter Holiday on Sunday, April 20

LUBBOCK, Texas — The United Family will close all stores and auxiliary operations on Sunday, April 20, 2025, so team members can enjoy a well-deserved day at home with their families. For its 109 years of operation, the company has closed its stores on Easter Sunday.

“Our tradition has been to close on Easter, so our team members can spend that time with their loved ones,” said Sidney Hopper, president of The United Family. “I am so thankful for our 18,000 plus team members across Texas and New Mexico. We are so happy for our team to have a day to spend with their families reflecting on the Easter season.”

Stores will resume normal operating hours on Monday, April 21.
