United Supermarkets & Market Street kick-off fundraising campaign for local non-profit SHARE

MIDLAND, Texas, and ODESSA, Texas — On Monday, representatives with United Supermarkets and Market Street gathered with representatives from the non-profit Sharing Hands A Respite Experience (SHARE) to kick-off a donate-at-the-register campaign.

As with past donate-at-the-register campaigns, guests of United Supermarkets and Market Street locations in the Permian Basin will be able to add any dollar amount to their grocery bill at check out with the funds going to benefit SHARE.

SHARE partners with families raising children with special needs, supporting their efforts to establish and maintain strong and successful families. SHARE offers programs that include but are not limited to: respite nights, support groups, counseling, NICU support, sibling activities, collaborative events with other local organizations, as well as holiday events tailored toward the unique circumstances of special needs.

"We are so proud to continue our tradition of supporting local non-profit organizations like SHARE with this fundraising campaign," said John Jameson, regional vice president for The United Family. "Their mission and positive impact on our community is truly inspiring. We know each dollar raised will make a huge impact for this organization and its families."

"The SHARE Walk is an event that encourages, supports, and celebrates special needs and disabilities within the Permian Basin, which is the heart of what SHARE is and who we support," said Cali Trowbridge, director of marketing and development for SHARE. "We're excited to celebrate this event's 16th year...by welcoming our first ever official SHARE Walk event sponsor, United Supermarkets and Market Street! Our partnership with the United Family has been long rooted and we are excited to continue this journey alongside this amazing team. All proceeds raised apply to local families and directly impact the special needs community - we're excited for next week!"
