New United Supermarkets coming to Wolfforth, Texas

WOLFFORTH, Texas — The United Family is officially announcing its plans to build a new United Supermarkets location in Wolfforth, with construction slated to begin in Spring 2026. Information for an official groundbreaking ceremony will come in the future.

Sidney Hopper, president of The United Family, commented on the company's opportunity to make this announcement, one that people have been excitedly waiting for.

"We are thrilled to officially announce that a new United Supermarkets location is coming to Wolfforth," Hopper said. "We have been so proud to serve this community with our United Express team for several years, but we know the community needs a full-service United Supermarkets location. We are pleased to inform the community that it is on its way!"

Located on the NE corner of Donald Preston Drive and Cambridge Avenue behind the existing United Express, the new location will have the greatest and latest innovations United Supermarkets has to offer, with guest service at the top of mind.

"We are grateful to partner with The United Family to bring this exciting new development to Wolfforth," said Gary Andrews, Vice President of GRACO Real Estate Development, Inc. "It's an honor for our family to be part of delivering a full-service grocery store that supports the tremendous growth of the Wolfforth community and the Frenship School District."

The new United Supermarkets will feature services that have become mainstays of all next-generation United Family locations including a full-service pharmacy with drive-through, Streetside grocery pick-up and delivery, ReadyMeals, fresh in-store bakery, full-service floral with delivery, an expansive beer and wine selection, a full-service meat market, and more. A final list of features will be announced at the future groundbreaking.

"Today marks a monumental milestone for the City of Wolfforth as we celebrate the formal completion of a partnership that has been years in the making," said Dr. Charles Addington II, mayor of the City of Wolfforth. "We are thrilled to officially welcome United Supermarkets to our community, a long-awaited addition that brings both essential resources and exciting momentum for continued commercial growth. On behalf of the city, we extend our heartfelt thanks to the United Family for believing in Wolfforth and investing in our future."

This location will create new job opportunities as well as promote economic growth throughout the city of Wolfforth.

"We are incredibly proud to welcome United Supermarkets to Wolfforth," said Danielle Sweat, director of economic development. "This project is more than just a new development; it's a meaningful investment in the quality of life for our residents. From job creation to everyday convenience, the impact on our community will be significant and long-lasting."
