United Supermarkets & Mighty Wash kick off United for a Mighty Cause campaign benefitting South Plains Food Bank

LUBBOCK, Texas — On Thursday, United Supermarkets, in partnership with Mighty Wash and the South Plains Food Bank, kicked off the United for a Mighty Cause campaign to raise funds for the purchase of peanut butter to fight summer hunger. United Supermarkets kicked off this campaign earlier in the month with a lead gift of 50 cases (600 jars) of peanut butter to the South Plains Food Bank.

Running now through June 22, guests will have the opportunity to support the campaign by making donations at the register, with funds going towards the purchase of 16oz jars of peanut butter to help with summer hunger. For every donation of $1.89, guests will receive a Mighty Wash coupon for a free car wash to be redeemed at one of their Lubbock locations. Guests can specify to their cashier how many jars they would like to donate at check-out.

“United for a Mighty Cause is a fantastic partnership opportunity between United Supermarkets, Mighty Wash, and the South Plains Food Bank to fight against summer hunger in our community,” said Abie Rappy, director of public relations for The United Family. “We are very proud to support the South Plains Food Bank in all the amazing and meaningful work they do for our community. Supporting our community is the heart of what we do here at United, and campaigns like these allow us to make that lasting impact.”

At the South Plains Food Bank, the mission is to alleviate hunger and bring hope to individuals and families facing food insecurity. Through compassionate service, community partnerships, and access to food, they strive to create a future where no one goes hungry. By addressing immediate needs and fostering long-term solutions, they are committed to building a stronger, healthier community for everyone.

“We are incredibly grateful to United Supermarkets and Mighty Wash for their unwavering support in filling summer food boxes for the counties we serve,” said Dina Jeffries, CEO of South Plains Food Bank. “The United for A Mighty Cause Peanut Butter drive comes at the perfect time, ensuring that our food-insecure children have the nourishment they need during the summer months. We deeply appreciate our local partners and the generosity of United and Mighty Wash’s guests for standing with us in this mission to fight hunger.”

“We are so proud to work with United Supermarkets and the South Plains Food Bank to support our community,” said Kelly Spiller, director of marketing and sales for Mighty Wash. “We look forward to a continued partnership in the future and hope everyone will come out to donate!”
