The United Family reminds guests stores will be closed for Thanksgiving

LUBBOCK, Texas — The United Family wants to remind guests across its areas of operation that all stores will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 2024.

Sidney Hopper, president of The United Family, said this tradition of closing on Thanksgiving allows all team members the ability to spend time with their families and friends.

Stores in The United Family will resume regular business hours on Friday, November 29. This includes all United Supermarkets, Market Street, Albertsons Market, and Amigos locations.
