United Supermarkets & Coca-Cola Southwest Beverages team up to stock Lubbock lake with more than 1,000 trout

LUBBOCK, Texas —United Supermarkets and Coca-Cola Southwest Beverages have teamed up to purchase more than 1,000 trout to restock the lake at McCullough Park. With the help of the City of Lubbock and Texas Parks and Wildlife, anglers across Lubbock will have an opportunity to fish a newly stocked lake.

On December 10, representatives with The United Family, Coca-Cola Southwest Beverages, the City of Lubbock and Texas Parks and Wildlife along with community members gathered to relocate the trout to their new home.

Wes Graves, store director for the United Supermarkets on 82nd and Boston Avenue, was driving force behind United's involvement in this donation. He and his son, Fisher, are part of the fishing community in Lubbock and hope this get folks out of the house and into nature.

"We are thrilled to have the opportunity to participate with several organizations to help make this happen for our neighbors," Graves said. "There is huge community of people who love to fish in Lubbock, and we hope this gives kids and adults alike a reason to get out of the house and into nature."
