United Supermarkets & Mrs Baird's Bread honor three Amarillo area teachers as Teachers on the Rise for November

AMARILLO, Texas — The United Family and Mrs Baird's Bread announced the November winners of the twelfth annual Teachers On The Rise program. Since the launch of the program in August, nominations have poured in from students and families across the High Plains, highlighting how teachers go above and beyond the call of duty, deserving special recognition.

Congratulations to our winners from November: Teresa Gomez of Gus Birdwell Elementary School (Spearman ISD), Jake Bunn of River Road Middle School (River Road ISD), and Alexis Franco of Palo Duro High School (Amarillo ISD).

"We are thrilled for this round of winners," said Abie Rampy, director of public relations for The United Family. "Teachers serve such a vital purpose in our communities and they are incredibly deserving of recognition. With only one semester remaining, we encourage students to keep nominating their favorite teachers every month!"

"We remain on pace for a record number of nominations this school year," said Shane Sumrow, the program's director. "It is an honor to hear how our educators go above and beyond, and with the New Year approaching, this is a great way to express your gratitude to educators who have made a special impact."

Winning teachers receive a $100 United Supermarkets gift card, a $100 American Express gift card from Tyler's Barbecue in Amarillo, a $100 Amazon gift card from Horse Creek Boutique in Spearman for classroom supplies, and a gift basket full of Mrs Baird's goodies. The students who nominate a winning teacher also receive a $50 American Express gift card. Teachers On The Rise is also sponsored by Kids Incorporated, which hosts the program's year-end banquet.
