New Mexico Market Street locations prepare for annual 'Entertaining Made Easy' Expo

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Market Street is proud to announce the return of its Entertaining Made Easy Expo at both Market Street locations in New Mexico on Sunday, November 9, from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

As the holiday season approaches, guests will again prepare to gather family and friends for food, wine, and good times. During the expo, guests can peruse all the latest offerings Market Street has available to make entertaining during those gatherings easier than ever.

From artisan bread to custom party trays to holiday-inspired baked goods, Market Street team members will show guests how to take the stress out of planning holiday gatherings without sacrificing the homemade quality that makes this time of year so special. Guests can browse different departments and sample items like Chantilly Cake, the Butter Pecan Cheese Ball, Sausage balls, and more.

In addition to samples and special displays, guests who attend the Entertaining Made Easy Expo will have an opportunity to win a $250 gift card to get their holiday shopping started off right.

"Our annual Holiday Expo is a showcase of the exceptional ways our Market Street teams can enhance any seasonal celebration," said Chris James, Chief Operating Officer of The United Family. "From artisanal bakery creations and gourmet deli offerings to elegant floral arrangements, guests are sure to discover inspiring ideas and premium products that will elevate their holiday gatherings."

Market Street encourages guests throughout Albuquerque, Rio Rancho, Santa Fe and surrounding communities to visit their local Market Street this Sunday to discover something new for this holiday season.
