The United Family set to present San Angelo Area Foundation with $75,000 following flood relief donation campaign

SAN ANGELO, Texas — The United Family is set to present the San Angelo Area Foundation with a donation of $75,000 following a companywide flood relief donation campaign. The event will take place on Tuesday, August 26, at 11:00 a.m. at Market Street (3121 Sunset Drive).

In July, The United Family launched a donate-at-the-register fundraising campaign following the devastating flooding in Central Texas. The campaign ran in all 99 United Family locations across Texas and New Mexico, including all United Supermarkets, Market Streets, Amigos, and Albertsons Markets.

Media is welcome to attend for a photo op and interview opportunities with representatives from both organizations.
