United Supermarkets launches U Can Share fundraising campaign

BROWNWOOD, Texas — On Friday, United Supermarkets kicked off its annual U Can Share fundraising campaign to support the Good Samaritan Food Pantry this holiday season. The campaign will run from November 28 through December 12.

Guests will have the opportunity to donate by adding any dollar amount to their grocery bill at checkout. All funds will support the Good Samaritan Food Pantry as they provide food to those experiencing food insecurity.

“We are thrilled to launch this annual campaign to support the work of our local food banks,” said Robert Bollinger, regional vice president for The United Family. “This fundraiser allows our community to support neighbors who need assistance with food insecurity this holiday season and throughout the year. We can’t say enough about the Good Samaritan Food Pantry for the work they do in this community.”

In 2024, the Good Samaritan Food Pantry served 700 families a month with 137 families served by the mobile food pantry program, according to their website. The mission of Good Samaritan Ministries as a whole is to proclaim the Gospel in both word and deed to all people in need in Brown County, Texas.
